

of two and one-half per centum on all sums paid to the collector of his election district on or before the first day of September, of the year in which the taxes are levied, and he, she or it shall be allowed a rebate of two per cent. on all sums paid, as aforesaid by the same, after the first day of September, and on or before the first day of October, in such year.

114. In each and every year, beginning with the year nineteen hundred and ten, on or before the fifteenth day of September, each collector shall pay over to the Treasurer and clerk aforesaid, all the State and county taxes collected by him, on or before the first day of September aforesaid, being the taxes on which he has allowed a rebate of two and one-half per cent. In each and every year, beginning with the year nineteen hundred and ten, on or before the fifteenth day of October, each collector shall pay over to the said Treasurer and clerk all the State and county taxes collected by him, after the first day of September and before the first day of said October, being the taxes on which he has allowed a rebate of two per cent. And on the fifteenth day of January, in each year following the levy of the taxes, each collector shall pay over to the Treasurer and clerk, all the State and county taxes collected by him, after the first day of the previous October, and on or before the first day of January aforesaid, being the taxes on which rebate has been allowed and no interest charged. And on the first day of April, in each year following the levy, each collector shall pay over to the said treasurer and clerk, one-half of the balance of all the State and county taxes, yet in his hands, for collection and not paid over, and he shall pay over the said one-half whether he has collected the same or not, and on the first day of August, in each year, following the year of the levy, each collector shall pay over to the treasurer and clerk all the State and county taxes previously placed in his hands for collection, whether he has collected the same or not, less the sums allowed to such collector by the County Commissioners for insolvencies and removals and the collector's commission. But if any collector fails to make to the treasurer and clerk any payment, on any of the days, appointed in this section, for such payment to be made, the treasurer and clerk shall without delay, report such default to the said County Commissioners, and the County Commissioners may forthwith order a suit to be brought on the collector's bond. But if any collector fails to make the payment, appointed to be made on the first day of August, in the year following year of the levy, the County Commissioners shall, within one month following said first day of August, order a suit to be brought, without delay, on the collector's bond, and they shall move for judgment in the term of the Court, at which said suit is brought, and the County Commis-
